Crucial Test.
Have you made any notes of the speech you intend to deliver? "No," said Senator Sorghum. "I am going to speak extemporaneously. When I prepare a speech in advance I'm liable to read it over a few times and, being something of a critic of myself, I lose my nerve."

That Little Word "If."
Husband (testily)—"Oh, if—if—if! You remind me of what the fellow who got lost in the woods said to his companion." Wife—"Well, what did he say?" Husband—"He said: 'Now, if we had some ham we'd have some ham and eggs, if we had some eggs.'"

Marion Teachers Meeting

The first meeting for the winter of the Marion County Teachers' Association was held in the study hall of the Ocala High school at 10 o'clock this morning.

There were some forty or fifty teachers present representing nearly all parts of the county. Miss Nellie C. Stevens, principal of the Ocala Primary school, presided and Miss Minnie Lee Carlisle, acted as recording secretary.

The first number was the singing of America. Dr. Herndon then led in an earnest prayer for the work of the teachers in moulding the children of the future. Mrs. Allie Van Davis, teacher of expression of the Ocala High school, gave a clipping from Van Dykes, "The Other Wise Man." Mrs. Davis made a fine impression, her rich voice and faultless enunciation giving added pathos and beauty to her beautiful selection.

The election of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows:

President—Prof. E. H. Miller, principal of Griner Farm school.

Vice President—Miss Abernathy, Ocala.

2nd Vice President—Prof. Feagle, principal of Citra school.

Secretary and Treasurer—Mrs. Wesson, Ocala.

Following the business session the program as printed in the county papers was carried out, with the addition of a splendid speech on "The Ideal School," by Prof. R. L. Turner, of Inverness, one of the two state inspectors of rural schools.

Prof. Turner has recently visited eleven schools in Marion county and stated that he was delighted with the conditions existing in the rural schools of this county, many of them having 100 per cent. attendance, painstaking, competent teachers and many good school buildings and fair school equipment. Among the many helpful things urged by Mr. Turner was the organization in every school of "Parent-Teacher's Societies," in order that there may be a better understanding of the child by these two guardians of child-life.

He paid glowing tribute to the state board of health for what it is doing for improved sanitation in the schools of Florida. He suggested also in every neighborhood that the school house be the social and civic center and a neighborhood "book shower" to provide a library, however small of good books and standard magazines. These are only a few of the many valuable suggestions made by Mr. Turner to the county teachers and is clearly the "right man in the right place."

Rev. J. R. Herndon, of the Presbyterian church spoke briefly of his interest in the education of the head, heart and hand. He stated three necessary things in a teacher: 1st, know thyself. Know your capabilities and your limitations. 2nd, a knowledge of your pupil as an individual. 3rd, book knowledge without confining yourself to the book. Strive always for the broader vision of literature, science, poetry and music as applied to life.

The next discussion was on the school exhibit at the Marion County Fair by Mr. Brinson, superintendent of the public schools of Marion county, who urged every teacher to begin at once preparing and arranging an exhibit to be ready for the educational exhibit. Not a fancy, nor necessarily a showy exhibit, but the best sample of the everyday work being done in our county schools.

The next session of the Association will be held at Sparr, on November 11th.

Following this helpful and inspiring meeting, a delicious light luncheon was served in the domestic science room furnished by the teachers of the Ocala schools and served under the direction of Miss Cooper, teacher of domestic science. This courtesy was greatly enjoyed and appreciated by the members of the association.

Miss Virginia Sistrunk returned this afternoon from a several months' sojourn with friends in Galbraith Springs, Greenville and Knoxville, Tenn.

Miss Mary Betty left yesterday afternoon for her home in Montgomery, Ala. We have never known any young lady from another city to win more friends in the same time as Miss Betty has, and we sincerely join in the hope that she may be long visit us again.

Miss Harwell, the trained nurse, so well and favorably known here, and now making her home in Gainesville, was in town today, on her way back to Gainesville from Wildwood, where she has been caring for a patient for the past few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Spurlin of Lake Weir were in the city last evening, guests of Mrs. Minnie Bostick.

Mr. J. A. Sewell, after a pleasant visit of several days with his daughter, Mrs. J. P. Galloway, left today for his home in Brooksville.

Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Maughis leave Monday for a two weeks visit to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Williams at Murdock in DeSoto county. During his stay in South Florida, Mr. Maughis, who is enthusiastic fisherman, expects to visit some of the noted angling places in the vicinity of Murdock.

Miss Bobbie Baldwin of McIntosh is the guest of Miss Birdie Reed.—Palatka News.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. M. Barrett and baby of Ocala spent the fore part of the week in Palatka with friends.—Palatka News.

Miss Edna Nelson of Tampa, formerly of Ocala, who has been the guest of friends in Hot Springs, Ark., since July, left the latter city Monday in company with her hostess, Miss Frances Smith, for Denver, Colo. In all probability Miss Nelson will be in the west several months.

The senior sewing circle of the Methodist church will meet Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock with Mrs. P. G. Barnett, 603 Tusculum street.

Mr. B. B. Barco returned to his home in Clearwater last night after a short stay the guest of his sisters, Mrs. Walter Hood and Mrs. Turner.

Mr. and Mrs. Osco Zewadski left yesterday afternoon for their home in Tampa.

Mr. George MacKay Jr., arrived this afternoon from Boston for a visit of a few days to his parents.

General and Mrs. Alfred Ayer and Miss Edna have returned from their country home near Flemington, and are again at their residence out on East Jefferson street.

Mr. Marcus Frank will leave Sunday or Monday for New York. Mrs. Frank and the children will remain for some months, however; probably until spring. Not only business but social circles will greatly miss Mr. Frank, who has made thousands of friends and lost very few, since he came to Ocala a mere boy some fifteen years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Burford are expecting a visit from their son, Mr. Robert Allen Burford, and his family, who will probably arrive in Ocala from Boston about the 14th.

Dr. James Chace, after a brief but pleasant visit to his son, Dr. J. E. Chace, and family, in this city, returned today to his home in Jacksonville.

Miss Nora Strickland of Citra, who was operated on for appendicitis at the hospital, is doing well. Her father, Mr. James Strickland, came in to see her yesterday.

Mrs. L. H. Hall will arrive in Jacksonville this evening from Ocala, and will be the guest of friends for several days, en route to New York city, where she will spend the coming month.—Times-Union.

FUNERAL OF MRS. TAYLOR

The funeral of Mrs. W. D. Taylor, held yesterday afternoon from the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George MacKay, was attended by hundreds of sorrowing friends and relatives. Mrs. Taylor was one of the most loved young women in this city, and her sudden death made a very deep impression, and has been felt keenly.

The masses of beautiful flowers which filled the parlor of the MacKay home, in which the funeral services were held, were commented on by the ministers in their eulogies of the young life called away. Rev. J. R. Herndon, pastor of the Presbyterian church, of which Mrs. Taylor was such a devoted member, conducted the services; A beautiful tribute was paid the deceased by Rev. Herndon, and by Dr. W. H. Dodge of Jacksonville, former pastor of the Presbyterian church here; the latter also offering a prayer. Other ministers present were Rev. J. M. Gross, pastor of the Methodist church, Rev. James G. Glass, pastor of Grace Episcopal church, and Rev. Bunyan Stephens, pastor of the Baptist church. The Presbyterian choir, of which Mrs. Taylor had been a member, sang two hymns, "Abide With Me" and "Safe In the Arms of Jesus."

In his tribute Rev. Herndon said: "Hers was a glad and happy life. The graces of her character were many. She shone in every station in which life found her. To her life seemed to open into long vistas of service and enjoyment. But it was not the will of her Father in heaven that she should longer sojourn here with us, and so He has made heaven more attractive to us by adding her beauty to the unseen side of things."

"She was affectionate in her nature but not sentimental, candid but not bold, mirthful but not frivolous, and pious without sanctimony. In her home life she was the companion and chum of her mother, the comrade of her father, brothers and sister, the genial and loving partner of her husband in all the joys, pleasures and duties of married life. Her taking away is a grievous loss to these loved ones in the home, and the whole community mourns her untimely death."

At Greenwood cemetery, where the interment took place, Rev. Herndon pronounced the words committing the body to the grave and Rev. James G. Glass pronounced the benediction.

Many Have Same Thought.
"When you think you could do what another fellow's doin' a heap better'n what he's doin' it," said Uncle Eben, "remember dot a lot of other fellers is thinkin' dot same thing about what you's doin'."
